

Wallpaper*

New York City's latest crop of luxury residential developments

90 Morton

19 April 2018

Comprising 35 residences, which include two- to five-bedroom apartments, the development features top class amenities for the residents as well as a sales gallery with especially commissioned artworks by Danielle Gottesman. The interior mixes old and new by blending contemporary design with an industrial feel.

QUINN